

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	xv
Preface	xxiv
Acknowledgments	xxix

PART 1 OVERVIEW 1

1 The origins of genocide 3

Genocide in prehistory, antiquity, and early modernity	3
The Vendée uprising	10
Zulu genocide	12
Naming genocide: Raphael Lemkin	13
Defining genocide: the UN Convention	18
Bounding genocide: comparative genocide studies	23
Discussion	29
What is destroyed in genocide?	39
Multiple and overlapping identities	45
Dynamism and contingency	48
The question of genocidal intent	49
Contested cases of genocide	50
Atlantic slavery – and after	50
Area bombing and nuclear warfare	54
The Biafra War	56
UN sanctions against Iraq	58
9/11: terrorism as genocide?	59
Structural and institutional violence	60
Is genocide ever justified?	62
Further study	65
Notes	67

2 State and empire; war and revolution 84

The state, imperialism, and genocide	86
Imperial famines	87
The Congo “rubber terror”	90

The Japanese in East and Southeast Asia	92
The United States in Indochina	94
The Soviets in Afghanistan	97
Imperial ascent and dissolution	101
Genocide and war	107
The First World War and the dawn of industrial death	112
The Second World War and the “barbarization of warfare”	114
Genocide and social revolution	116
The nuclear revolution and “omnicide”	118
Further study	120
Notes	122
 PART 2 CASE STUDIES	 133
 3 Genocides of indigenous peoples	 135
Introduction	135
Colonialism and the discourse of extinction	136
The conquest of the Americas	137
Spanish America	138
The United States and Canada	140
Other genocidal strategies	144
Australia’s Aborigines and the Namibian Hereros	145
Genocide in Australia	145
The Herero genocide	148
Denying genocide, celebrating genocide	151
Complexities and caveats	152
Indigenous revival	155
Further study	157
Notes	159
 4 The Ottoman destruction of Christian minorities	 176
Introduction	176
Origins of the genocide	178
War, deportation, and massacre	180
The Armenian genocide	181
The Assyrian genocide	189
The Anatolian and Pontian Greek genocide	199
Aftermath: attempts at justice	200
Turkey: denial . . . and growing recognition	202
Further study	207
Notes	209
 5 Stalin and Mao	 222
The Soviet Union and Stalinism	223
1917: the Bolsheviks seize power	223
Collectivization and famine	226

The Gulag	230
The Great Purge of 1937–1938	233
The war years	234
The destruction of national minorities	238
China and Maoism	245
Stalin, Mao, and Genocide	253
Further study	254
Stalin and Stalinism	254
Mao's China	256
Notes	256
6 The Jewish Holocaust	275
Introduction	275
Origins	276
“Ordinary Germans” and the Nazis	280
The turn to mass murder	281
Debating the Holocaust	294
Intentionalists vs. functionalists	295
Jewish resistance	295
The Allies and the churches: could the Jews have been saved?	296
Willing executioners?	298
Israel, the Palestinians, and the Holocaust	300
Is the Jewish Holocaust “uniquely unique”?	301
Further study	303
Notes	305
7 Cambodia and the Khmer Rouge	334
Origins of the Khmer Rouge	334
War and revolution, 1970–1975	337
A genocidal ideology	339
Hatred of “enemies of the people”	339
Xenophobia and messianic nationalism	339
Peasantism, anti-urbanism, primitivism	340
Purity, discipline, militarism	340
A policy of “urbicide,” 1975	341
“Base people” vs. “new people”	342
Cambodia's Holocaust, 1975–1979	343
Mass executions	347
Genocide against Buddhists and ethnic minorities	349
Aftermath: politics and the quest for justice	352
Further study	355
Notes	356
8 Bosnia and Kosovo	374
Origins and onset	374
Gendercide and genocide in Bosnia	379
The international dimension	382

Kosovo, 1998–1999	385
Aftermaths	387
Further study	392
Notes	392
9 Genocide in Africa's Great Lakes region	408
The African Great Lakes countries in regional context	409
Rwanda, 1994: horror and shame	411
Background to genocide	412
Genocidal frenzy	415
Congo and Africa's "first world war"	424
1996–1997: The "genocide of the camps"	424
The Second Congo War	427
The Burundian imbroglio	429
Great Lakes aftermaths	433
Further study	437
Rwanda	437
Congo	438
Burundi	438
Notes	439
PART 3 SOCIAL SCIENCE PERSPECTIVES	459
10 Psychological perspectives	461
Narcissism, greed, fear, humiliation	461
Narcissism	462
Greed	465
Fear	468
Humiliation	472
The psychology of perpetrators	475
The Milgram experiments	476
The Stanford prison experiments	478
The psychology of rescuers	481
Rescuers and resisters of the Holocaust	484
Further study	491
Notes	492
11 The sociology and anthropology of genocide	501
Introduction	501
Sociological perspectives	502
The sociology of modernity	502
Ethnicity and ethnic conflict	506
Ethnic conflict and violence "specialists"	508
"Middleman minorities"	509
Anthropological perspectives	514
Forensic anthropology	519

Further study	522
Notes	523
12 Political science and international relations	530
Empirical investigations	530
The changing face of war	535
Democracy, war, and genocide/democide	539
Norms and prohibition regimes	542
Further study	547
Notes	548
13 Gendering genocide	552
Gendercide vs. root-and-branch genocide	553
Women as genocidal targets	558
Gendercidal institutions	561
Genocidal men, genocidal women	566
A note on gendered propaganda	572
Further study	576
Notes	577
PART 4 THE FUTURE OF GENOCIDE	585
14 Memory, forgetting, and denial	587
Contested memories	588
Germany	588
Japan	593
Argentina	596
Forgetting	600
Genocide denial: motives and strategies	600
Denial and free speech	603
Further study	606
Notes	607
15 Justice, truth, and redress	613
Leipzig, Constantinople, Nuremberg, Tokyo	614
The international criminal tribunals: Yugoslavia and Rwanda	621
Juridical contributions	623
National trials	626
The “mixed tribunals”: Cambodia and Sierra Leone	628
Another kind of justice: Rwanda’s gacaca experiment	629
The Pinochet case	631
The International Criminal Court (ICC)	633
International citizens’ tribunals	635
Truth and reconciliation	636
The challenge of redress	642
The role of apology	644

Further study	645
Notes	646
16 Strategies of intervention and prevention	655
Warning signs	656
Humanitarian intervention	664
Sanctions	665
The United Nations	666
When is military intervention justified?	667
A standing “peace army”?	674
Ideologies and individuals	675
The role of the honest witness	676
Ideologies, religious and secular	678
Personal responsibility	681
Conclusion	683
Further study	684
Notes	685
Index	693

ILLUSTRATIONS

FIGURES

1.1	An extraordinary stained-glass array in the village church of Les Lucs-sur-Boulogne, south of Nantes.	11
1.2	Raphael Lemkin.	14
1.3	Lemkin's gravestone in Mount Hebron Cemetery, Queens, New York.	15
1.4	Samantha Power during her time at the United Nations in 2016.	18
1.5	US aerial spraying with Agent Orange.	35
1.6	The ruins of the Warsaw ghetto.	39
1.7	UN peacekeepers walk by a destroyed mosque in Ahmići, Bosnia-Herzegovina, in April 1993.	43
1.8	1943 poster displaying the bloodthirsty "Jewish Bolshevik commissar."	47
1.9	Cells where slaves were held in dark, stifling, and fetid captivity.	51
1.10	We Charge Genocide .	53
1.11	A destroyed temple amidst the ruins of Nagasaki, Japan.	55
1.12	African child, stomach swollen with starvation.	57
1.13	Ruins of the World Trade Center in lower Manhattan on September 15, 2001.	60
1.14	Child in a Coptic Christian neighborhood of Cairo, Egypt.	61
1.15	"Burning of the Plaine du Cap – Massacre of Whites by the Blacks."	63
2.1	"The Famine in India – Natives Waiting for Relief in Bangalore."	89
2.2	"A child victim of Belgian atrocities in Congo stands with a missionary (probably Mr. Wallbaum)."	91
2.3	Japanese forces used captured Chinese prisoners of war as targets for bayonet practice.	93
2.4	Vietnamese children and women rounded up in My Lai hamlet.	96
2.5	Soviet troops round up young Afghan men in a counterinsurgency sweep in 1985.	98
2.6	The mass expulsion of the Circassians from their mountainous homeland.	100
2.7	Timothy Snyder teaching at Yale in June 2017.	104
2.8	A US recruiting poster from World War I.	109
2.9	Military and civilian men, depicted marching lemminglike in a 1915 poster.	110
2.10	Alfred George Jones shortly after volunteering for service.	112
2.11	Wasteland left by the Somme battle.	113
2.12	Nazi soldiers advancing beyond a burning village near Pskov during Operation Barbarossa.	115
2.13	Thirty minutes after the blast that killed some 80,000 people.	119
3.1	Severing of limbs upon natives who failed to deliver sufficient gold to the Spaniards.	139

3.2	The Cerro Rico overlooking Potosí, Bolivia.	140
3.3	US soldiers loading the corpses of Indian victims of the Wounded Knee massacre.	143
3.4	Truganini (also known as Trugernanner).	146
3.5	A statue of Captain James Cook, sprayed with graffiti in Sydney's Hyde Park.	147
3.6	Famished Hereros after emerging from the Omaheke desert in Namibia.	150
3.7	Nahua victims of a sixteenth-century smallpox epidemic in Mexico.	153
3.8	Buffy Sainte-Marie at a concert to commemorate the work of the Canadian Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC).	155
3a.1	Rigoberta Menchú speaking at a ceremony for the Odebrecht Award for Sustainable Development in Quito, Ecuador.	167
3a.2	"Queqchí people carrying their loved ones' remains after an exhumation in Cambayal in Alta Verapaz department, Guatemala."	169
3a.3	General Efraín Ríos Montt testifying at his first trial in Guatemala.	170
4.1	Campaign spearheaded by the American Committee for Relief in the Near East.	182
4.2	Armenian men in the city of Harput being led away for mass murder on the outskirts of town.	184
4.3	"An Armenian woman kneeling beside a dead child in field 'within sight of help and safety at Aleppo,' an Ottoman city."	185
4.4	Henry Morgenthau Sr.	185
4.5	Kurdish refugee women and their children.	193
4.6	Demonstration against renewed Turkish military attacks on the country's Kurds.	194
4.7	Bakhtiar Awmar pointing to a 1988 image of himself as a boy collecting bodies of victims of the Iraqi chemical attack on the city of Halabja.	196
4.8	Fighters of the Women's Protection Units (YPJ) guarding the Kurdish quasi-state in northern Syria.	198
4.9	"Weeding Out the Men: All men of military age were torn away from their wives and children and led away in groups for deportation to the interior."	200
4.10	The Treatment of Armenians in the Ottoman Empire prominently displayed in a bookstore window in Turkey's showcase metropolis, Istanbul.	204
4.11	Taner Akçam speaking at the Holocaust Museum Houston.	205
4.12	Two young Turkish citizens at the genocide memorial and museum in Yerevan.	206
4a.1	Islamic State leader Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi declared a new "Caliphate" to rally Sunni Muslims in Iraq, Syria, and beyond to his extremist and genocidal cause.	219
4a.2	Pro-Yezidi demonstrators outside the US White House in Washington, DC, 2014.	219
5.1	"Enemies of the Five-Year Plan."	228
5.2	Slave labor on the White Sea Canal.	229
5.3	"Passers-by no longer pay attention to the corpses of starved peasants on a street."	230
5.4	Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin with his foreign minister, Vyacheslav Molotov.	237
5.5	Russian soldiers burying the corpses of detained Chechen men in a mass grave.	241
5.6	Ramzan Kadyrov, Chechen strongman, at a meeting with Russian president Vladimir Putin.	242
5.7	Alexander Solzhenitsyn.	243
5.8	Anne Applebaum.	244
5.9	Mao Zedong during the first year of the new People's Republic.	247
5.10	Spectators look on as purge victims are paraded for public humiliation during the Cultural Revolution.	250
5.11	Kim Jong Un when he succeeded his late father, Kim Jong Il.	252

5a.1	The 14th Dalai Lama on a visit to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.	267
5a.2	A woman holds a sign denouncing Uyghur genocide at a protest in Melbourne, Australia.	270
6.1	A woodcut from 1493 depicting a mass burning of Jews.	277
6.2	Cartoon from Der Stürmer depicting innocent Aryan womanhood about to be ensnared and drained of her blood by the monstrous Jewish spider.	278
6.3	Adolf Hitler leaves a Nazi party gathering.	278
6.4	The synagogue in Baden-Baden, Germany, gutted by fire on Kristallnacht .	279
6.5 and 6.6	Two indelible images of the Jewish Holocaust.	285
6.7	A gas chamber at the Majdanek death camp on the outskirts of Lublin, Poland.	289
6.8	The haunting ruins of the Crematorium III death factory at Auschwitz-Birkenau.	291
6.9 and 6.10	Christopher Browning and Daniel Jonah Goldhagen.	299
6a.1	Smoke billowing from the crematorium chimney of the Schloss Hartheim killing complex in Austria.	316
6a.2	An emaciated Soviet prisoner of war in the Zeithain camp in Saxony, Germany.	321
6a.3	Roma interned in the Nazis' Belzec death camp in Poland.	323
6a.4	Margot R., an ethnic-German refugee from Poland.	326
7.1	A cell in the Tuol Sleng S-21 detention and torture center in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.	348
7.2	"Killing field" at Cheung Ek outside Phnom Penh.	348
7.3	An elderly woman in a Cham Muslim village in Tonle Bet Commune, Kampong Cham, Cambodia.	349
7.4	Dith Pran and Haing S. Ngor on a joint return to Phnom Penh in 1986.	350
7.5	Al Rockoff at a Mexican cantina in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.	351
7.6	Women victims of the Tuol Sleng torture and execution center in Phnom Penh.	353
7.7	Former Khmer Rouge head of state Khieu Samphan at the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC).	355
7a.1	Young men trucked to prison under army guard.	362
7a.2	The Act of Killing poster.	364
7a.3	Australian soldiers of INTERFET patrolling the streets of Dili.	368
8.1	Map of the siege of Sarajevo.	377
8.2	"Sarajevo siege life, winter of 1992–1993."	378
8.3	Coffins containing the exhumed remains of Srebrenica massacre victims.	381
8.4	Bosnian Muslim women mourners at a Srebrenica reinterment ceremony.	382
8.5	Official signing ceremony of the Dayton Accords.	385
8.6	First court appearance of Radovan Karadzic before the tribunal in The Hague, Netherlands.	388
8.7	An Italian carabinieri member of KFOR (Kosovo Force) patrols at the bridge across the Ibar River.	391
8a.1	Bengali victims of genocide by Pakistani forces in Dhaka.	399
8a.2	A boy stands by a memorial at one of the killing fields in the 1971 Bangladeshi genocide.	400
8a.3	First page of the "Blood Telegram."	401
9.1	Lt. Gen. Roméo Dallaire at a talk delivered in September 2017 to St. Joseph's Health Care Foundation in London, Ontario.	416
9.2	Victims' corpses pulled from Lake Victoria by Ugandan fishermen.	418
9.3	The Nyamata Memorial Site, centered on a church and surrounding area.	419

9.4	A ring of spears outside the Bisesero genocide memorial in southwest Rwanda.	422
9.5	Lime-shrouded corpses at the Murambi genocide memorial in Rwanda.	434
9.6	Residents of Mutaho in eastern Congo, displaced and fleeing to Goma City.	435
9a.1	Darfurese woman refugee sorting and cleaning millet at the Farchana camp in eastern Chad.	450
10.1	Hubert Lanzinger's 1930s-era portrait of Adolf Hitler, Der Bannerträger (The Standard Bearer).	462
10.2	Kim Il Sung in a photo of a wall painting in the city of Wonsan.	462
10.3	A popular Canadian slogan adorns a wall in a Vancouver bookstore.	464
10.4	A Jewish-owned pen repair shop seized and transferred by Nazi directive almost certainly to a new French owner.	466
10.5	A plaque on the Askari war memorial in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania.	469
10.6	The core of the Milgram experiments.	477
10.7	Dr. Philip Zimbardo addressing the Budapest Family Summit, Hungary.	480
10.8	Pastor André and Magda Trocmé.	481
10.9	Oskar Schindler.	483
10.10	Chiune Sugihara.	483
10.11	Sophie Scholl with her brother Hans and friend Christoph Probst.	483
10.12	Raoul Wallenberg.	484
10.13	Lt. Col. Hugh Thompson Jr., in his official army portrait prior to the My Lai massacre.	486
11.1	Zygmunt Bauman in September 2013.	503
11.2	A canister of Zyklon B, the insecticide that the Nazis adapted to murder Jews and others in gas chambers.	505
11.3	"Many homes and businesses owned by ethnic Chinese in Jakarta were looted and burned in the riots."	511
11.4	The wasteland of the Rohingya Muslim community in Narzi.	513
11.5	A homeless man on a bench in Niagara Falls, New York, USA.	519
11.6	Cover of Clea Koff, The Bone Woman .	520
12.1	Barbara Harff speaking at Cardozo School of Law in New York City.	532
12.2	"Countries at Risk for Mass Killing 2021–22."	533
12.3	Ernesto Verdeja.	534
12.4	Demobilized child soldiers in the Democratic Republic of the Congo.	537
12.5	The Nyakabanda transit camp for Congolese refugees, outside Kisoro, southwestern Uganda.	538
12.6	George Clooney discussing genocide in Sudan with President Obama at the White House.	543
12.7	Jody Williams at a hearing on "Preventing Sexual Violence and Gender-based Crimes" at the United Nations General Assembly.	544
12.8	Illustration for an 1837 poem by the Quaker activist John Greenleaf Whittier.	545
13.1	A frieze at the memorial museum in Lidice, Czech Republic, depicting the 1942 massacre by Nazi soldiers of 190 village males.	555
13.2	Prisoners being inducted at the Buchenwald concentration camp.	555
13.3	A sign outside the maternity hospital in Puducherry (Pondicherry), India, encouraging a progressive approach to gender equality.	562
13.4	An American counter-protestor (Robert Evans) stands in front of anti-gay protestors during Queer Culture Fest in Seoul, Korea.	563

13.5	A display of crosses outside a convention center in Brasilia.	566
13.6	Anonymous woodcut published by Dariusz Kupisz, Psków, in 1581–1582.	570
13.7	Wendy Lower.	571
13.8	Poster for the Nazi propaganda exhibition Der Ewige Jude (The Eternal Jew), 1937.	575
13.9	Tutsi women seducing UN force commander Gen. Roméo Dallaire in a cartoon from Kangura (February 1994).	575
14.1	A visitor at the open-air Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe in central Berlin.	589
14.2	“Stumbling stone” at Zunftstrasse 5 in Freiburg, Germany, commemorating a victim of the Nazis’ persecution and incarceration of homosexual men.	590
14.3	A banner with an image of ethnic-German refugees uprooted from formerly Nazi-occupied territories between 1945 and 1947.	593
14.4	The Yasukuni shrine in Tokyo.	595
14.5	The façade of the Escuela Mecánica de la Armada (Naval Mechanics School, ESMA) in Buenos Aires, Argentina.	598
14.6	Picture of a “disappeared” young man in a window in Olimpo.	599
15.1	Benjamin Ferencz at a press conference in Courtroom 600 of the Palace of Justice.	616
15.2	Initial page of the Nazi Einsatzgruppen report confirming the genocidal massacre of 33,771 Jews at the Babi Yar ravine.	617
15.3	Benjamin Ferencz in his mid-20s, during the Einsatzgruppen trial in Courtroom 600.	618
15.4	Defendants during proceedings in the Einsatzgruppen trial, January 1, 1948.	619
15.5	“It’s Vestine’s turn to talk about what happened to her family before the gacaca, the village court.”	630
15.6	The International Criminal Court building in The Hague, Netherlands.	633
15.7	Audience members listen to testimony at a hearing of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada in Victoria, BC.	638
16.1	Detail of memorial at the Dachau concentration camp in southern Germany.	656
16.2	Female peacekeepers from the African Union Mission in Somalia (AMISOM) during a Guard of Honour in Mogadishu, December 12, 2016.	667
16.3	Demonstrators marching against the bombing of Syria, London (UK).	669
16.4	Cover of Geoffrey Robinson, “If You Leave Us Here, We Will Die”: How Genocide Was Stopped in East Timor .	671
16.5	Emblem of the International Legion of Territorial Defense of Ukraine, 2022.	675
16.6	A published dispatch by Gareth Jones from the London Evening Standard (March 31, 1933).	677
16.7	A student group meets at the museum of the Dachau concentration camp near Munich, Germany.	679

MAPS

0.1	Preface : World Map: Cases of genocide and mass conflict referenced in this book.	xxii
2.1	The European Rimlands.	103
2.2	The “Bloodlands” of present-day Lithuania, Poland, Belarus, Ukraine, and western Russia in August 1941.	105
3a.1	Guatemala.	165
4.1	The geography of the Armenian genocide.	188
5.1	A Russian map of the Gulag labor camp system.	232

5a.1	Chinese Tibet (the Tibet Autonomous Region).	264
5a.2	Map of the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region.	268
6.1	The Holocaust in Europe.	283
7.1	Cambodia.	336
7a.1	Indonesia.	361
7a.2	East Timor.	365
8.1	Bosnia and Herzegovina today.	378
8.2	Kosovo.	386
8a.1	Bangladesh.	398
9.1	Boundaries of Africa's Great Lakes region.	409
9.2	Rwanda.	413
9.3	The lines of advance by the Rwandan army (RPA) and the AFDL during the First Congo War of 1996–1997.	426
9.4	Burundi.	430
9a.1	Sudan after the independence of South Sudan.	447
9a.2	South Sudan.	451

BOX TEXTS

1.1	Genocide in the archaeological record	5
1.2	Humanity's 20 deadliest "multicides"	9
1.3	Whatever happened to political groups?	20
1.4	Genocide: scholarly definitions	24
1.5	A lexicon of genocides and related mass crimes	30
1.6	The other "-cides" of genocide	34
1.7	Urbicide	37
1.8	"Physical," "biological," and "cultural" genocide	40
1.9	We Charge Genocide	53
2.1	The Circassian genocide	99
2.2	The "Rimlands," "Bloodlands," and "Shatterzones" of empire	102
3A	The genocide of Guatemala's Mayans	165
4.1	One woman's story: Ester Ahronian	186
4.2	The Kurds: tragedy and hope	191
4A	Iraq, Syria, and the rise of Islamic State (IS)	216
5.1	One man's story: Boris Izvekov	235
5.2	Genocide in post-Soviet Chechnya	239
5.3	North Korea and "the cleanest race"	251
5A	China: Tibetans and Uyghurs	264
6.1	Last letter from Hungary	286
6.2	"An Extermination at Belzec"	288
6.3	One woman's story: Nechama Epstein	292
6A	The Nazis' other victims	312
7.1	One woman's story: Denise Affonço	344
7.2	Cambodia: killing fields and The Killing Fields	350
7A	Indonesia and East Timor	360
8.1	One man's story: Nežad Avdić	383

8A	Genocide in Bangladesh	397
8A.1	“Mute and horrified witnesses”: The Blood Telegram	400
9.1	One woman’s story: Gloriose Mukakanimba	419
9.2	Denying Rwanda, denying Congo	428
9A	Darfur, South Sudan, and South Kordofan	447
10.1	“Keep your people in place. My guns are on you”: Hugh Thompson Jr. and the My Lai massacre	486
11.1	The Rohingya people of Myanmar	511
11.2	“ The Bone Woman ”: Clea Koff	520
12.1	The political science of genocide	534
13.1	Gendercide and vigilantism against gay and trans people	563
13.2	Sexual terrorism: “love jihad”	573
14.1	Stolpersteine : the “stumbling stones”	590
15.1	Nuremberg: Benjamin Ferencz, the Einsatzgruppen , and the story of Courtroom 600	616
15.2	“Genocide” vs. “crimes against humanity”	624
15.3	Canada: toward truth and reconciliation on “Turtle Island”	638
16.1	The United Nations Office of Genocide Prevention (OSAPG) and the Framework of atrocity crimes	658
16.2	Pax Ethnica : inoculating societies against genocide	662
16.3	The Responsibility to Protect (R2P) and the Will to Intervene (W2I)	668
16.4	“If you leave us here, we will die”: intervention in East Timor, 1999	671